

Oncorhynchus gorbuscha

Pink salmon

General

1. Anadromous; freshwater, brackish, marine, temperate waters

Geography

1. Native: Artic and Pacific drainages from Mackenzie River delta, Northwest Territories, Canada to Sacramento River drainage, in California, USA; occasionally as far as La Jolla, southern California; also in northeast Asia (Ref. 5723). On Asia side, from North Korea to Jana and Lena drainages in Artic Russia. In Bering Sea north of about 40°N and from Bering Strait northeast to Point Barrow and northwest to Lena estuary (Ref. 59043). Introduced elsewhere. Occasionally hybridizes with Oncorhynchus keta producing fertile offspring (Ref. 28983).
2. Introduced: Great Lakes

Invasion pathways

1. Stocked

Sources

1. <http://www.fishbase.org/Summary/SpeciesSummary.php?ID=240&AT=pink+salmon>